

Inter-Spiritual Celebration of Gratitude at Thanksgiving

2:00pm Sunday November 20th 2022

In-Person!

Interfaith Community Sanctuary
1763 NW 62nd Street
Seattle, WA 98107

Live Stream
YouTube

Celebrate with us as we welcome friends from many faith and spiritual traditions to share their heart-felt expressions of Gratitude at this time of Thanksgiving.

All religions, All this singing, One song. – Rumi

This celebration will be in-person. You may also view it Live Stream on our YouTube channel

This 30+ year old celebration brings strangers and friends together from diverse faith and spiritual traditions. Our first Seattle interfaith celebration was inspired by the Vedanta Society. Those organizers formed the Interfaith Council of WA (ICW) in 1987. ICW becoming Interfaith Network (TIN). In 2013 TIN merged with Northwest Interfaith Community Outreach (NICO) and evolved into Northwest Interfaith (NWI) in 2018. We continue to gather diverse peoples of faith and spiritual traditions together for celebration, dialogue, education, friendship, social / climate activism, and worship.

Co-Creators: Northwest Interfaith, Interfaith Community Sanctuary, Peace Camp International, SiSiWiss Medicine Circle, along with diverse spiritual communities living in the great northwest. Donations invited: <https://www.northwestinterfaith.org/support-us.html>