

SAVE THE DATE

The 39th Annual Interspiritual Celebration Gratitude and Hope in Uncertain Times

When: Sunday, Nov 23, 2:00 - 4:00 PM

Where: The Well, 1606 5th Ave W, Seattle, WA 98119

Program followed by light refreshments and fellowship

Free to attend | Donations welcome

*In a world full of questions, we gather to remember what holds us:
Gratitude for what has carried us. Hope for what lies ahead.*

Join us for a sacred afternoon where voices from many paths rise as one, offering prayers, music, movement, and silence. Together, we'll honor the spirit that lives in all traditions and shines brightest when shared. This year's celebration welcomes expressions of soul and story from: Christian, Jewish, Muslim, Buddhist, Baha'i, New Thought, Sant Nirankari Mission, Laughing Mullah, and more.

Register here: <https://gratitudeandhope.bpt.me>

Bring your open heart. Come as you are. All ages, all paths, all hearts are welcome in this circle of spirit and connection. This is a free community gathering. We'll pass the basket with gratitude to support future celebrations.