

A SOULCOLLAGE® WORKSHOP:

Creative Connections Across the Veil

In this season of gratitude, we're also remembering and missing those who have passed on. What if there was an accessible, creative way to honor our beloveds, and maybe even open up the connection that's still there? Take time for yourself with your loved one, through images, intuition, and imagination. Bring a photo of your beloved relative, friend, or pet, and collage it together with magazine images chosen intuitively. We'll create beautiful collaged cards, then read from them to discover the wisdom and gifts our beloveds have for us now. SoulCollage, an accessible art practice for creative expression and inner discovery, is perfect for illuminating these ongoing relationships. No art experience needed, all materials provided.

WHEN: Saturday November 28, 2026, 9:30am - 12:30pm

WHERE: Interfaith Community Sanctuary,
1763 NW 62nd Street, in Ballard

PLEASE PRE-REGISTER, SPACE IS LIMITED:
Email Julia — fieldartworks AT gmail DOT com

FREE: Love offerings for ICS welcome

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR:

Julia Field is a designer, artist, and trained SoulCollage® facilitator since 2004. She has led workshops in creative expression, communication skills, and conflict resolution, and brings decades of experience in visual communication to this work.

FOR MORE ABOUT SOULCOLLAGE: https//:soulcollage.com